Fall Magic in Marshall Michigan

Date: Saturday September 15th 2018

Time: 11:00AM

Where: American Museum of Magic
107 East Michigan Avenue
Marshall, MI 49068

RSVP by: Monday September 10th

We will start the activities at the American Museum of Magic by taking a guided tour of the largest collection of magic artifacts, on public display, in the United States. There we can experience the treasures of Houdini, Thurston, Michigan's own Blackstone, and those of hundreds of other magicians. Following the tour we will be entertained by a 45-minute magic show.

Lunch will be a few blocks away at the renowned Schuler's Restaurant, a family owned eatery for more than a century. Their menu and ambiance bring families back over multiple generations.

Following lunch, we will have a docent take us on a tour of the Honolulu House Museum, built in 1860 for Judge Abner Pratt. The house is true tropical architecture; 15 foot ceilings, 10 foot doors, windows that open from the floor up, open galleries with a dining room and kitchen on the group floor.

Our last stop will be a short drive away at the Ice Cream Dream, for a tasty and cool treat before heading home.

Please drive on your own to Marshall and meet at the American Museum of Magic by I I AM. Parking is in the rear, accessible from Madison Street. Further information, including driving directions around Marshall, will be provided to all who register for this fun event.

To register for this event, please contact Phil Crutchfield, by Monday, September 10, 2018, at george.p.crutchfield@gmail.com or 734-347-8747. Please include the number of people in your group, as I will need to update each venue regarding the number of participants.

the President's Purr...

What a fun filled JAGM summer we've had so far!

"Thank You!" to all members who work hard to plan and organize such wonderful fun filled activities! It is truly the cornerstone to staying close, creating memories and being all together as a family. Looking forward to the rest of the year which is filled with some very exciting events, including the Concours d'Elegance and the Christmas Party. Check out the Activities calendar and postings within the newsletter and plan on joining in on the fun!

We continue to look for ways to bring new members into the club, and the JAGM website is essential to that effort. I think I speak for the entire JAGM family, in that we can't thank Kris enough for her dedication and contributions she's made throughout the years with the newsletter and our website. Since the website will be our primary focus going forward, we need additional technological assistance to get the most out the opportunities that our new website provider offers, to make it a top-notch application. With that, we are putting out a call for all members to reach out to those that could lend a hand. If you know anyone who has any experience with website design, and would like to volunteer their time and experience, please let Kris know.

Until next we meet... Teresa

It's CONCOURS Time!!!

Our annual Concours is coming up on August 25. It is our premier event of the year. We need as many cars to show up as possible. You can show your car in Championship, Driven or Display Classes. Championship Class will judge the interior, exterior, engine compartment (bonnet) and trunk (boot). Driven Class will judge the interior and exterior. I don't mean to put down Driven cars, but all you have to do is vacuum out your interior and run your car through a good car wash and you will be presentable in Driven Class. You may not win, but you will be presentable. Display cars are just that, display with no judging.

We have a new and unique location. It is Olde Canterbury Village on Joslyn Road in Lake Orion. Our cars will be displayed mostly on the grass between the buildings inside the Village.

There are a lot of interesting shops to visit throughout the day. There is something for everyone. Lunch is on your own, probably at the Pub. Our Concours Banquet will be Saturday evening in the Kings Court Castle banquet room up front at Canterbury Village. We will have a nice dinner buffet for a very reasonable price. Awards from the day will be presented along with a slide show showing the entries and events of the day.

Friday evening, August 24 will be a Greeting Party at our host hotel, the Springhill Suites by Marriott near the corner of Lapeer and Dutton Roads. A light dinner, possibly pizza and salad, will be provided for all Concours participants and JAGM members starting around 6:30PM and running to about 9:30PM. We hope to have a lot of out-of-town visitors and guests coming to our Concours. We would like our club members to welcome them and bring a dish to pass and share. We will be located in the hotel lobby/bar/breakfast area. We have negotiated a very favorable room rate with the hotel.

This year's Concours is an opportunity to clean out some of your stuff and turn it over to someone else who might appreciate it. This year we will be having a "pack your own goodie bag." You choose what to add to your bag and take home. You get what you want or need. If you have anything around the house or garage that you previously received and not used it, please bring it back and recycle it back to someone else. The same goes for raffle items. Do you have something that can be recycled to someone else. How many unused coffee mugs do we really need.

There will be another Silent Auction at the Concours.

If you have something that is nice but not fully appreciated in its current situation, you can donate that to our Silent Auction.

You don't have to, but it would be nice to let Louise Diamond (wheezee@bigtube.net) know what you have so that she can plan for it when setting up the silent auction.

The deadline for signing up for the Concours is about a week before the event on August 18th.

Display cars will be accepted at any time, including at the door.

Car washing facilities and parking lot security will be available at the host hotel.

If you have any questions, please let me know.

WOW ~ Summer Drive

These cars are made for driving and that's just what we did! On the road again..., etc... June meant that it was really time to get our cars out, blow out some smoke, leak some oil and splatter some bugs.

Twenty four of us hit the road for the Upper Peninsula. We met at Mackinaw City on Friday afternoon and evening, June 22nd. Several followed the route from last year up the eastern shore of the lower peninsula. Someone must have run a nice trip there. Nothing was scheduled so reservations were made on the fly for most of us at a local brewery for Friday dinner. This club will never go hungry or thirsty.

Saturday was our busy day. We left the Mackinaw City hotel at 7:30AM to head to the UP. It was overcast but pleasant. Shortly after we crossed the Big Mac Bridge, the sprinkles started, but only lasted a short while. While it sprinkled on us, there were heavy storms back at home. We had a 3 1/2 hour drive to Munising to get to the Pictured Rocks Boat Tour. One car had a mishap with an upper radiator hose. Fortunately, we had an hour cushion and another trip member was there to go out and pick up a universal hose. We boarded the very nice, large, comfortable three level catamaran for our 2 1/4 hour tour. We couldn't have asked for better weather or conditions. The sun was out. It was warm. The water was smooth as glass. The Edmund Fitzgerald must have been a real wimpy boat to have gone down in that water. We had a very nice pizza and salad luncheon on board which made many other passengers jealous. When we offered them our leftovers, some of the kids really jumped on it. The views of the shoreline were spectacular. The erosion created many cliffs, caves and rock towers, many stained with the local minerals.

The narrations along the way really explained a lot of what we were seeing. I was surprised at the number of lake kayaking schools set up along our route. It was a beautiful day for that activity.

After a short time in Munising, we hit the road for Tahquamenon Falls. On the way, I saw an old Bentley at an ice cream shop. Well, we just had to stop, compare oil leaks, and get some ice cream. The owner invited us to his house the following day which we accepted. We went to the Lower Falls first, walked around and had our Kodak moments. I was surprised to see people and dogs playing in the river and Lower Falls. Then it was off to the Upper Falls and the Brewery located there. Are you catching a pattern here. No one was playing in the more impressive Upper Falls. They had a significant width and drop for the Midwest. It was another very picturesque walk through the woods to get to the falls. The Brewery was the only place for many miles around that could handle a group our size. We were divided up into several tables which didn't bother us. The food, service and drinks were excellent.

After dinner, many of us went to visit the cottage of Jason and Carol Mattison, some long time JAGM members. They have a very nice place overlooking Lake Superior in Paradise. Since boys have to have toys, we had to take a look at Jason's Jaguar Mark VII which needs a lot of work and his 20 motorcycles. I thought that was initially a joke, but it wasn't. He actually does ride a different one every day. Some even have license plates. The mosquitoes in the area were terrible, only to be topped the following day. That was a very long day.

Sunday, we intended to go to Whitefish Point Lighthouse and Shipwreck Museum. En route, we found that they didn't open until the time we had to leave to move on to Sault Ste. Marie. Several of us made the trip there to see the area, the view of the lake and what was available at the museum. What we saw was over shadowed by all the flying bugs of all types. They didn't care if we had bug spray or not. We came, we saw and we left in 5 minutes.

Back to the hotel to pick up the rest of the group and move on to the Soo. We arrived a bit early and had to wait for our boat to arrive with our hot luncheon from the other dock.

We had a wonderful luncheon on the enclosed lower level. After lunch, we all moved to the open upper level for the improved scenery. We started out going down river while eating, then turned around and headed up river to the locks. The very informative narration kept us aware of what was around us. The locks are just one stage with an elevation change of 29 feet. It takes about 12 minutes to fill or empty the locks that we were using. There is a very long, 100 year old, powerhouse that generates electricity from that 29 foot drop. More power to them. We saw the locks, power house, winter ice dams, steel mill, international bridge, swing bridge and historic buildings then back down through another lock.

From there, we went to visit our Bentley friend Brian from the day before. Overall, he had two Jaguar XJS's, almost twins, two Bentley's, a Rolls and even a Corvette. He lived in a very nice apartment above a boat house and he didn't even have a boat. The boathouse had a 29' ceiling so a boat could be raised up out of the water on straps and cables. He did have two kayaks on the massive slings. This was our easy day. We had time to kill., Some went touring around town. Some parked for refreshments. A couple others had their own agenda. On the way back to Mackinaw City, I drove through Saint Ignace, then around Mackinaw City. I drove by the fort, light house and old Mackinaw icebreaker. We had another great dinner at Audie's and a little get together in our hotel lobby.

Monday, a few of us went through the Mackinaw Bridge Museum in town. I didn't realize that the old museum had burned down in 2007 and so much had been destroyed. It was rebuilt and replaced but not the same. Then it was back home. I traveled 175 to and from Mackinaw City. Overall, I traveled 1025 miles in 4 days and averaged 57 mph. We were moving along.

Where would you like to go next year for a 4 day trip?

Mad Dogs & Englishmen ~ ALWAYS a Good Time!

The Caravan to Hickory Corners and the Mad Dogs and Englishmen all British car show has become an annual JAGM staple. This year there were eleven cars in the Caravan. After meeting up with everyone at the end of the drive, there were thirty three in the group for the Barn Theatre's presentation of the musical "Bonnie and Clyde".

Our longtime favorite ice cream shop in Olivet has new owners and their renovations were still in progress so an alternative stop was located. The former A&W Root Beer stand in Bellevue proved more than capable to satisfy the Caravan's participants. The drive would never be the same without the ice cream!

Weather for the Car Show couldn't have been better. Bob Matejek supplied Easy-Ups (shuttled in his Jeep; no two door Chevy this year) to shield everyone from the sun. As always, there was a plethora of British cars to view. JAGM was well represented with awards being taken by Mike & Kris, Jim & Steve, Lauren & Rick Ruiter, Chuck & Louise Diamond, Burt & Sandy and Mike Erspamer.

Thanks to all who participated!
